Excerpt: .to Oct. 1, 1911, and after Nov. 1 by his successor, O. I. Hickcox. The writer has had charge of the office and laboratory work connected with the feed inspection, while the chemical analyses of the feed samples have been made by J. C. Jurrjens and Miss E. M. Bresee, assistant chemists. The inspection of feed stores in different parts of the state was begun on January 12, 1911, and was continued with brief intervals through the year until the present writing, December 15. During this period 920 feed stores in 359 different cities and towns in the state have been visited. A number of the places have been visited several times, viz.: Milwaukee 7 times, Madison 5, Janesville, Racine. La Crosse, and Tomah, each 3 times, and 22 towns and cities were visited twice each. Table I gives a summary of the number of samples of concentrated feeding stuffs collected under the state law, or received from outside parties during the present year to December 15, 1911. The number of samples of licensed brands of feeding stuffs collected and analyzed last year was 778 and the number of samples of unlicensed brands 61, making a total of 839 samples, which were collected by our inspectors and analyzed in the chemical laboratory of this Station, against 821 samples in 1910. Since manufacturers and dealers are at liberty to register as many brands of feeding stuffs as they expect to sell in the state during...
