Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Scout Cabin During World War II, can you imagine what must have happened when the folks in the village of Lakeville learned that German POWs were going to be working on farms in the area? With school out that summer of 1944, two young boys spend hours camping on an island and attacking an old Boy Scout cabin filled with imaginary evil forces. Little did they know that they would one day encounter and become captives of real enemy soldiers right in their own home town! Trunk in the Attic Looking in a closet for an antique Victrola in his grandparent s attic, a young boy discovers an old steamer trunk he had never seen before. Opening it, he finds it not only empty, but bottomless. His curiosity leads to a strange, scary, and very mysterious discovery. Cassie and the Sugarplum Fairy When Cassie learns that the town s largest employer is closing its doors just prior to Christmas, she decides to do something about it. How can a little girl tackle a problem of this dimension? Find out how she (with the help of some fairies and elves) overcomes a seemingly hopeless situation, proving that happy endings are possible when people work together.
