Frank Hickey, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Cold grips Manhattan. The city throws a Unity Holiday Party, a dancing street fair to bring all together. I, Max, 62, meet and flirt with a dark blonde beauty named Peg, a barmaid with no illusions left. Her looks and slangy streetwise talk hold me. At my age, she makes me smolder and feel 24 again. No matter what it takes, I want her for mine. But the plan smashes when a drunken Black man fights with a White rookie cop. The Black man dies and everyone hollers their own ideas about what really happened. Seeing a chance to hit big on a settlement, I summon Nancy, a hooligan street-fighter with a lawyer s ticket. This kind of death means cash. Peg is the only witness to the struggle between the drunken man and the cop. If I can run this, I can stop hustling forever. Skip, another lawyer, Black, my nemesis-father figure, always scheming, hijacks Peg for his reward. His bodyguard, Joey, beats me in a fight. The FBI and the radical group SAP -Stop Police Action- jump into this case. Trying to out-dance them, I go undercover in SAP and live like a radical. Through freezing stakeout nights and bitter dawns, I must find Peg and love at Christmas.
