The Great Controversy: The Struggle Within Consciousness Between the Psyche and His Community (Paperback)

By Perry Tkachuk

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. The Self is fundamentally misunderstood. For millennia, Religions have targeted the Self as man's sinful evil nature, citing Adam's and Eve's disobedience as being the origin of humanity becoming mortal. But, it is this mortality that taught man to value life by overcoming death with every breath of air and every bite of food, and as a result, and over many millennia of time, forming consciousness, morality and Self-making creationism and the assumptions built on it throughout Biblical times and beyond, diabolically contrary to reality. This book attempts to put the pieces of Self together through the perspectives gained from an understanding of our split brain, neuroscience, psychology, sociology, cultural anthropology, philosophy, linguistics-and especially how language and culture are formed. Tkachuk toggles these findings with his own experience of being born and raised in the Seventh-day Adventist faith and becoming an ordained minister of the faith. But then tragedy struck his life-and it was significant enough to force him to reevaluate the assumptions his life was built on, which ultimately meant leaving the church and the Christian faith....
