He clasps the crag with hooked hands; Close to the sun in lonely lands, Ring d with the azure world, he stands. The wrinkled sea beneath him crawls; He watches from his mountain walls; And like a thunderbolt he falls. Oral Exercise. Notice the mark over e in hooked. It means that you are to make two syllables of hooked. Read the first line, making one syllable of hooked, and notice how you spoil the sound of the line. Read the first stanza. What are the eagle s hands? Why are they described as hooked? What words in the second line tell us that the eagle was standing on the top of a very high mountain? Do you think other birds were with him? What made a great blue ring around the top of the mountain? Read the second stanza. What did the waves so far below him look like? Instead of moving swiftly, how did they seem to move? Did they really crawl? What do you think the eagle was watching? How did he descend on his prey? Read the poem again. Can you make a picture in your mind of the eagle standing alone on the top of a high mountain, with the blue sky above him, and the sea far, far below him? Can you see him watching until he catches sight of his prey, and then suddenly swooping down with the swiftness of a thunderbolt? Draw the eagle standing...
